Raising children is a tough challenge in today's world. Peers and pop culture exert a never-ending pressure on kids. Parents often feel helpless, as every godly principle they teach their children seems to be contradicted by the corrupt principles of this defective world. But the good news is, God has a plan for effectively raising your children and you can learn from it. Packed with practical advice, this series will give struggling parents a vision for their children's future and life-changing help for today.

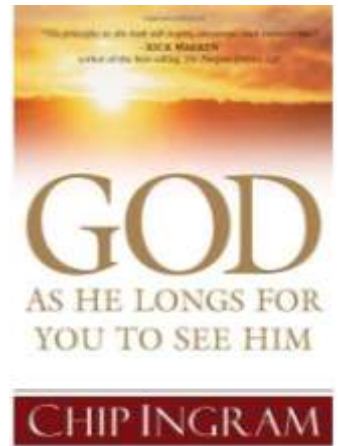

- This series includes the following messages:
- How to Raise Positive Kids in a Negative World
 - How to Develop Your Child's Full Potential
 - How to Discipline Your Child Effectively
 - How to Prepare Your Kids to Win Life's Biggest Battle

God as He Longs for You to See Him
Author: Chip Ingram
9 a.m. Sundays, Jan. 15-29 & April 15-May 20 (does not meet April 8)

Leader: Ken Ballard
Location: Hutchinson High School, Room 217
Format: DVD and Discussion
Materials: Participants guide

How would you describe God? Awesome? All Powerful? Creator? While we cannot know Him exhaustively, we can know Him truly. And God longs for you to see Him as He truly is. This fascinating series studies the seven attributes of God. As you begin to see God for who He really is and what His true desires for your life are, it will change the way you pray, the way you live, and the way you think about the world around you.

This series includes the following messages:

- Is Your God Too Small?
- The Goodness of God
- The Sovereignty of God
- The Holiness of God
- The Wisdom of God
- The Justice of God
- The Faithfulness of God
- The Love of God

If you are interested in one of these classes, stop by the table in the commons beginning Sunday, Jan. 8, or contact the church office at (320) 587-2668 or shalom.sbc@gmail.com.

You are about to read the stories of people who met Jesus face-to-face. Some were willing to leave everything to follow him; others were willing to do anything to put him on a cross.

Like an IMAX experience, Mark's Gospel is vivid and dramatic. It reads more like a screenplay than a biography. Compelling narratives, miraculous signs, compassionate deeds, striking confrontations and provocative teachings interconnect and move at a rapid pace toward a stark climax and an inspiring conclusion. Mark's Gospel projects Jesus in high definition and digital surround sound.

Jesus steps onto Mark's stage with amazing authority and an anointed mission. He is the Christ, the Son of God. And he comes with a transformational message: "The time has come. The kingdom of God is near. Repent and believe the good news."

So many choices await us as we step into our own "come and follow" adventure.

- What nets will we leave behind?
- How will we come to know him and be known by him?
- What will it mean for us to genuinely trust him?
- How will he teach us to fish in our own sea of relationships?

His invitation stands. Come. Follow. Fish.
